

INFORMED CONSENT

A. INFORMATION SHEET FOR RESEARCH PARTICIPANTS

In accordance with current data protection regulations, we inform you that the personal data requested from you will be processed by the University of Oviedo, as the Data Controller, in order to support the research carried out in the research work "A machine learning assistant for detecting fraudulent activities in synchronous online programming exams". which involves the collection of the personal data that is requested, and in which you have freely decided to participate by providing your express consent through this document.

It is not necessary to provide any data, and the use of the tool may be totally anonymous. The aforementioned research project will last approximately one year and will be carried out in the Computational Reflection research group of the University of Oviedo.

All personal data provided will be processed in accordance with current data protection regulations, especially subject to the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (hereinafter, GDPR) and Organic Law 3/2018, of 5 December, on the Protection of Personal Data and Guarantee of Digital Rights (hereinafter, LOPDGDD).

The University of Oviedo, as the data controller, in compliance with the provisions of the GDPR, hereby informs you that the fact of participating in this study by providing your UO identifier, will entail processing by the research team, solely and exclusively for the purposes that have been mentioned (correlating the use of the tool with the assessment obtained in the aforementioned subject). However, if you have any questions about the study, you can contact Francisco Orfín Soler at the following email address orfn@uniovi.es.

We inform you that your data will be kept for as long as there is an interest in maintaining the purpose of the processing and when it is no longer necessary for it, it will be deleted by applying appropriate security measures to ensure the anonymization of the data or its complete destruction.

We also inform you that your data may be accessed by competent authorities, where appropriate, and by the members of the Ethics Committee, if they consider it necessary for the supervision of the aforementioned research study. We remind you that you are responsible for the veracity of the data provided.

On the basis that your participation is completely voluntary, we remind you that you can revoke your consent at any time, without having to justify your decision or that this would entail any inconvenience for you. All this, without prejudice to the conservation of the data resulting from the investigations that had been carried out previously. Likewise, we inform you that you may exercise your rights of access, rectification, deletion, opposition, limitation of processing and portability of your data, through the following email address secretariageneral@uniovi.es or contact our Data Protection Officer at the email address delegadopdatos@uniovi.es.

Likewise, they may request the protection of the Spanish Data Protection Agency, if they consider that their rights have not been adequately attended.

B. INFORMED CONSENT TO BE COMPLETED BY THE INTERESTED PARTY

As a student of the subject Programming Technology, I confirm that I have received from Francisco Ortín Soler detailed information about the study "A machine learning assistant for detecting fraudulent activities in synchronous online programming exams", in which I voluntarily want to participate.

I declare that I have been provided with clear and detailed information about the aforementioned study, through the "Information sheet for the participant in the research" that has been made available to me, expressly understanding the terms of the same and what my participation in the research implies, having sufficient time to understand it, being able to raise the doubts that it has raised in me and without my consent having been given in a conditional manner.

I also understand that my participation is voluntary and that I can withdraw from the project at any time, without having to justify my decision.

Consequently, I give my express consent for participation in the proposed study, and, therefore, I accept that the data that may be derived from this research may be used for scientific dissemination, always safeguarding my right to privacy.

I consent to participation in the research study under the terms proposed.
